If you want a card for your spouse to use, please check "spouse" in the right-hand column and complete the information below. Your spouse will not necessarily be responsible for repayment.
Joint Credit/Co-applicant: This means you are relying on your credit and that of your co-applicant as basis for repayment and credit limit. A co-applicant receives a card for use and is responsible for repayment. A co-applicant can also be a spouse.

1. You promise that everything you have stated in this application is correct to the best of your knowledge. If there are any important changes you will notify us in writing immediately. You authorize the Credit Union to obtain credit reports in connection with this application for credit and for any update, increase, renewal, extension, or collection of the credit received. You understand that the Credit Union will rely on the information in this application and your credit report to make its decision. If you request, the Credit Union will tell you the name and address of any credit bureau from which it received a credit report on you. It is a federal crime to willfully and deliberately provide incomplete or incorrect information on loan applications made to federal credit unions insured by NCUA. 2. You understand that the use of your card will constitute acknowledgment of receipt and agreement to the terms of the credit card agreement and disclosures. You grant us a security interest in all individual and joint share and/or deposit accounts you have with us now and in the future to secure your credit card account. When you are in default, you authorize us to apply the balance in these accounts to any amounts due. Shares and deposits in an Individual Retirement Account, and any other account that would lose special tax treatment under state or federal law if given as security, are not subject to the security interest you have given in your shares and deposits. 3. Collections: If you do not pay any amount due hereunder, we may hire or pay someone who is not our employee to help collect your loan account, which shall include any amounts due under this Plan. You agree to pay us all costs of collection, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees, court costs, and other costs and expenses of collection. These costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees will include, without limitation, costs, expenses and attorneys' fees for bankruptcy proceedings (including efforts to modify or vacate any automatic stay or injunction), appeals, and any anticipated post-judgement collection services. If the Credit Union accepts any payment of your debt under this contract after having demanded payment on the entire unpaid balance due or after the Credit Union has sued you, this won't be considered a waiver or forgiveness of any default in payments or any other default on your part. The Credit Union may delay enforcing any of its rights without losing them.
